

ALICIA SJOLIN

DIGITAL MARKETING PROFESSIONAL

ABOUT ME

My name is Alicia Sjolín, I am a freelance digital marketing professional with over 4 years of experience turning initial ideas into strategies which create content that actually connect with people. With a over four years working in a niche agency, I've had the chance to manage everything from social media and email campaigns to SEO and branding. I studied Business Administration with a Major in Marketing, and now I run my own agency where I combine creativity with strategy to help businesses grow online. My goal? Work that feels fresh, authentic, and makes your brand impossible to ignore.
